“All About Mangoes”: The Anam Cam Ranh Unveils Tropical Afternoon Tea Experience

CAM RANH, Vietnam (August 20, 2025) – In a tribute to Cam Ranh’s famously juicy mangos, The Anam Cam Ranh’s fine dining restaurant has launched a remarkable afternoon tea for two replete with mango scones served with homemade mango jam and clotted cream.

With an open kitchen, grand piano, and courtyard with a canopy of established gardens, The Colonial Restaurant, which specialises in modern European and French dishes with Vietnamese nuances, serves “Afternoon Tea Mango Symphony” from 3-5pm daily.

Poached tiger prawns with mango salsa, tobiko and brioche roll, Iberico Bellota slice with charred mango and whole grain mustard dressing served with sourdough toast, and salmon croquettes with crème fraîche and mango chutney are among the afternoon tea’s savouries.

In addition to the mango scones, Afternoon Tea Mango Symphony’s sweets include macaron with mango cream cheese filling, mango sago pudding with coconut panna cotta and passion fruit jelly, pavlova with diced mango and basil mango compote, mango, lemon and almond tart, and mango jelly with Pandan leaves.

The savouries and sweets are accompanied by a Dammann tea selection of Earl Grey, English breakfast, jasmine, peppermint and camomile. Local green tea is also available.

The Anam Group’s group general manager Laurent Myter said Khanh Hoa province’s bountiful mango plantations had inspired the new afternoon tea experience.

“In Vietnam, mangoes symbolize fertility, a promising future and prosperity, and the quality of the variety of mangos grown in our province Khanh Hoa can’t be beat,” he said. “Khanh Hoa’s fertile soil and warm and tropical weather, affording abundant sunshine and the right amount of rainfall, result in the region’s famous juicy mangos that are reimagined in our imaginative mango-themed afternoon tea.”

Afternoon Tea Mango Symphony is priced at 460,000 VND nett for two people.

About The Anam Group

After the auspicious debut of The Anam Cam Ranh in 2017, the independently owned and operated The Anam Group celebrated the grand opening of its second property, The Anam Mui Ne, in January 2023, and multipurpose convention centre Axi Plaza in Cam Ranh in April, 2024.

With “Indochine Charm” and “Modern Luxury” as its watchwords, the group blends colonial-era aesthetics and attentive Vietnamese service with modern comforts and convenience. “The Anam” today is a reference to another name, “An Nam”, which was the name of Central Vietnam during the French Indochina era.

The Anam Cam Ranh overlooks 300 metres of beachfront on Vietnam’s scenic Cam Ranh peninsula, which averages more than 300 sunny days per year. The luxurious five-star resort boasts 77 villas and 136 rooms and suites. The Anam Cam Ranh features a French-inspired fine dining restaurant, all-day dining restaurant, a Vietnamese restaurant and bar, a classical bar, a beach club, in-room dining, a 10 treatment-room spa, indoor and outdoor movie theatres, three capacious swimming pools, ballroom, conference rooms, recreation and fitness centre, a tennis court, yoga room and deck, kids club, putting green, onsite sustainable farm, gift shop and more.

Like its predecessor The Anam Cam Ranh, The Anam Mui Ne’s design is also an echo out of Vietnam’s Indochine era. Situated in southern Vietnam’s popular beach town Mui Ne, the 1.2 hectare beachfront resort affords spectacular ocean vistas and features 127 elegant rooms and suites, including seven 142sqm suites with private pools and a 122sqm presidential suite with an extra room for the bodyguards. Its dining landscape comprises an all-day dining restaurant and grill, beachside restaurant and bar, and lobby bar. A five-treatment room spa, two vast swimming pools, a ballroom, conference rooms, water sports center, fitness center, yoga room, kid’s club and gift shop are among the resort’s host of world-class facilities.

With a design inspired by Vietnam’s iconic basket boat, Axi Plaza is a game changer for Cam Ranh and MICE offerings on Vietnam’s coastline due to its distinctive architecture and design, and spectacular beachfront location. Adjacent to The Anam Cam Ranh, Axi Plaza offers a vast state-of-the-art conference hall, a 360-degree rooftop venue, stunning outdoor beachfront event space, about 10,000sqm dedicated to shopping and dining outlets, and more.
