

The Hari Hong Kong Scores Spot on Condé Nast Traveler List

The Hotel is ranked #3 on a list of hotels in Hong Kong & Macau

HONG KONG (Oct. 8, 2025) – Condé Nast Traveler today announced the results of its annual Readers' Choice Awards with The Hari Hong Kong recognized in the #3 spot on a list of the best hotels in Hong Kong & Macau.

Condé Nast Traveler received more than 757,000 survey responses from readers across the United States. Awards conferred by Condé Nast Traveler and Travel + Leisure are widely regarded as the most coveted in the United States, if not worldwide.

The full list of winners can be found here.

“This is the first time The Hari Hong Kong has landed on this coveted award list,” said The Hari Hong Kong’s General Manager, Edward E. Snoeks. “Scoring one of the top spots in Hong Kong and Macau, when there’s no shortage of stunning hotels, is a testament to our high service level and the dedication of all our team.”

Bridging the commercial pulse of Causeway Bay and the creativity and vibrancy of Wan Chai, The Hari Hong Kong stands tall on Hong Kong’s Lockhart Road. The sister hotel of The Hari London, The Hari Hong Kong is the brainchild of Dr Aron Harilela, the chairman and CEO of Harilela Hotels Ltd., whose family has a long legacy in Hong Kong.

The elegant 30-story hotel bears the stamp of acclaimed British interior designer Tara Bernerd, comprising 210 guest rooms, including three signature rooftop suites with terraces that offer stunning views of Wan Chai, Causeway Bay, The Peak, and Victoria Harbour.

The hotel’s diverse dining landscape includes contemporary Italian ristorante Lucciola, Japanese restaurant Zoku with a remarkable ceiling of angled timber slats in origami-like forms, an alfresco terrace bar aptly named The Terrace and The Lounge, and an all-day sitting area adorned with a compelling collection of books and artworks.

The 2025 Readers' Choice Awards are published on Condé Nast Traveler's website at cntraveler.com/rca and celebrated in the November issue.
